"The perishable agricultural commodities listed on this invoice are sold subject to the statutory trust authorized by Section 5(c) of the Perishable Agricultural Commodities Act, 1930 (7 USC 499(e)(c)). The seller of these commodities retains a trust claim over these commodities, all inventories of food or other products derived from these commodities, and any receivables or proceeds from the sale of these commodities until full payment is received. NOTICE: Past due invoices shall accrue annual interest at the rate of 12% or at the maximum legal rate, whichever is lower. Seller shall be entitled to collect reasonable attorney's fees and expenses as part of an action to collect on this invoice. Actual attorney's fees incurred in bringing any action to collect on this invoice and/or enforcing any judgment granted and interest shall be considered as additional sums owed in connection with this transaction. "

[Warning – if you are a shipper based outside the United States or if you are a United States based shipper, but you do not have a PACA licence, this paragraph WILL NOT preserve your PACA trust rights, you MUST also send a PACA trust notice. [link to trust notice page in website]

f/n 1 – If you have a written consignment contract with your receiver, the pay period that you place in this part of the invoice must match the payment term in your contract. If you do not have a written contract with your receiver that contains a period for payment of invoices, then you should use "PACA terms".
